Schematic – Control card to gate drive interface PCB

This design was used to interface a pair of control cards to a pair of gate drive boards in a dual 65kW power inverter application. The schematic was captured using MultiSim. The resulting 6-layer PCB was then completed using Ultiboard.